

Lesson 10: My perfect study plan

Students can describe their daily study routines, discuss learning tools, and share advice for building good study habits while balancing school and family life.

 Objective: Present a complete and healthy study routine.

Warm Up

Let's talk about study habits.

THINK AND SHARE

"What do you usually do to stay focused and get your homework done at home?"

START WITH:

- When I need to study, I usually...
- To stay focused, I always...

Useful language (Part 1)

habit

DEF something you do regularly, often without thinking

EG Reading a book before bed is a good habit.

CHK Which is a good study habit: checking your phone often or reviewing your notes?

routine

DEF your usual way of doing things in a specific order

EG My morning routine includes waking up, eating breakfast, and walking to school.

CHK What is the first thing you do in your morning routine?

focus

DEF to give all your attention to one specific thing

EG I need a quiet room so I can focus on my homework.

CHK Where is it easier to focus: in a noisy room or in a quiet library?

Useful Language (Part 2)

improve

DEF to make something better

EG I study every day to improve my English.

CHK If you improve your test score, does it go up or down?

do homework

DEF to complete schoolwork at home

EG I always do my homework in a quiet room.

CHK Do you usually do your homework before or after dinner?

DEF to stop working for a short time to rest

EG I like to take a break and go outside for ten minutes.

CHK When you take a break, do you keep studying or do you rest?

Conversation Builder

Learn how to finish your talk and give advice on your study routine.

- To sum up... — to briefly summarize your main points
- In conclusion... — to formally end your talk
- The best way is to... — to share your top piece of advice

MODEL DIALOG

Well, I always do my homework early and take frequent breaks. To sum up, this routine really helps me improve. The best way is to find a quiet room where you can focus.

Let's practice

TEACHER

"Imagine I'm your friend. I want to build a better study routine so I can get my homework done and still spend time with my family. Give me some advice using the phrases below."

STUDENT GUIDE
