

Lesson 3: Managing Study Time

Students can describe their daily study routines, discuss learning tools, and share advice for building good study habits while balancing school and family life.

 Objective: Talk about how often you do different study activities.

Warm-up

Daily routines and taking breaks

THINK AND SHARE

"How do you organize your schedule to make time for breaks?"

START WITH:

- I plan my schedule by...
- Having a good schedule helps me...

Useful language (Part 1)

early

DEF Before the usual or expected time.

EG I wake up early to study before school.

CHK What do you usually do early in the morning?

late

DEF After the usual or expected time.

EG He went to bed late because he had a lot of homework.

CHK Is it better to study early in the morning or late at night?

Useful Language (Part 2)

on time

DEF Not late; happening at the correct time.

EG I always finish my homework on time.

CHK Which of these means you are on time:
arriving at 8:00 for an 8:00 class, or arriving at 8:15?

schedule

DEF A plan of what you will do and when you will do it.

EG I have a busy study schedule this week.

CHK Do you prefer to keep your schedule in a notebook or on your phone?

calendar

DEF A chart that shows the days, weeks, and months of the year.

EG I mark my test dates on my calendar.

CHK What do you usually see on a calendar:
months and days, or names and phone numbers?

Conversation Builder

Discuss how often you do things in your schedule.

- I always... — To talk about something you do every day or all the time.
- I sometimes... — To talk about something you do occasionally, but not every day.
- I rarely... — To talk about something you almost never do.

MODEL DIALOG

Tutor: So, do you look at your calendar every day?

Student: Yes, I always look at my calendar. I like to be on time.

Tutor: That's good. Do you ever study late at night?

Student: No, I rarely study late. I sometimes study early in the morning instead.

Let's practice

TEACHER

"Let's talk about creating a good schedule so you have time for breaks. Imagine I'm your friend and I say: 'You know, I study really late every night. I never take breaks.' Disagree with me and tell me about your weekly schedule. Use the sentences below to help you."

STUDENT GUIDE

- 💡 Actually, I rarely study _____ because I need time to rest.
- 💡 I always check my _____ so I can finish my work on time.
- 💡 Well, I sometimes wake up _____, but I make sure to take breaks.

Real-world scenario

 You: Student: You are planning your weekly school schedule.

 Tutor: Tutor: You are helping the student plan their schedule. Suggest studying very late at night.

⚡ THE PROBLEM

You want to create a balanced schedule so you have time to take breaks, but your tutor wants you to study very late at night.

YOUR MISSION

-  Disagree with the tutor's suggestion.
-  Explain your preferred schedule.
-  Use the words always, sometimes, rarely, early, and late.

▶ Alright, let's look at your calendar. I think we should plan to study very late every night. What do you think?

Wrap-up

TODAY'S RECAP

- ✓ Vocabulary: early, late, on time, schedule, calendar
- ✓ Language chunks: I always... / I sometimes... / I rarely...
- ✓ Skill: Talk about how often you do study activities.

FINAL TASK

Use one of today's language chunks to tell me: What is one thing you do to keep a good study schedule?

 Challenge: Review your weekly calendar and practice saying three things you always do on time.
