- I like studying at... — Say where you sit, such as at a desk.
- It is better to... — Explain why this place is good.

MODEL DIALOG

Tutor: So, where do you usually study at home?

Student: Well, I prefer to study in my bedroom. I like studying at my desk because it's comfortable.

Tutor: That sounds nice. Is it quiet in your bedroom?

Student: Yes, it's bright and quiet. It is better to study there because it isn't noisy.

Let's practice

TEACHER

"Imagine you need to read your textbook at home. Tell me about your favorite room to study in. You can choose the living room, your bedroom, or the kitchen. Use the phrases below to describe if it is quiet, comfortable, or bright."

STUDENT GUIDE

- 💬 I prefer to study in the ____ because it is ____.
- 💬 I like studying in my ____ because it is very ____.
- 💬 It's a great place to study, but sometimes it gets too ____.

Real-world scenario

 You: You are the student. Describe your favorite place to study at home.

 Tutor: You are the tutor. Ask the student if their study space is too noisy or if it's bright enough.

⚡ THE PROBLEM

You need to find the best place to open your textbook and focus.

YOUR MISSION

-  Tell the tutor where you like to study.
-  Use words like quiet, comfortable, and desk.
-  Answer the tutor's questions about noise and light.

▶ Tutor: So, tell me, where do you prefer to study at home?
