

Lesson 6: Asking for Help

Students can describe their daily study routines, discuss learning tools, and share advice for building good study habits while balancing school and family life.

 Objective: Ask teachers or family members for assistance with schoolwork.

Warm up

Asking for help

THINK AND SHARE

"Who do you ask for help when you can't find the answer online?"

START WITH:

- When I can't find the answer online, I ask...
- I usually ask my... because...

Useful Language (Part 1)

explain

DEF To make something clear or easy to understand.

EG Can you explain this math homework to me?

CHK Who usually explains a new lesson: the teacher or the student?

understand

DEF To know what something means or how it works.

EG I don't understand this book because the words are too difficult.

CHK If you understand a new game, is it easy or difficult to play?

Useful Language (Part 2)

difficult 🧩

DEF Hard to do or understand.

EG This math homework is very difficult.

CHK Which is more difficult for you: math or English?

easy 😊

DEF Not hard; simple to do or understand.

EG The first question on the test was easy.

CHK Which school subject is easy for you?

repeat ↺

DEF To say or do something again.

EG Can you repeat the answer, please?

CHK When do you ask a teacher to repeat something: when you understand, or when you don't understand?

Conversation Builder

Learn how to ask for help with difficult schoolwork.

- Can you help me with... — To politely ask for assistance.
- I don't understand... — To say something is difficult or unclear.
- Could you explain... — To ask someone to teach or show you how to do something.

MODEL DIALOG

A: Hey, I'm having some trouble with my math homework. Can you help me with this problem?

B: Sure, let me take a look.

A: I don't understand this part. Could you explain it to me?

B: No problem, it's actually pretty easy. Let me show you.

Let's practice

TEACHER

"Imagine you looked up your homework answers online, but the topic is still too difficult. I'll be your older brother or sister. Ask me for help using the sentences below. Choose a subject like math, history, or English."

STUDENT GUIDE

- 💬 Hey, can you help me with _____?
- 💬 I searched online, but I still don't understand _____.
- 💬 This homework is really _____.
- 💬 Could you please explain _____?

Real-world scenario

 You: Student

 Tutor: Older brother or sister (tutor)

⚡ THE PROBLEM

You have a difficult homework assignment. You looked for help online, but you still don't understand it.

YOUR MISSION

-  Tell your older brother or sister that the homework is difficult.
-  Say that you don't understand the lesson.
-  Ask them to explain it to you.

▶ Hey! Are you busy right now? I'm really stuck. Can you help me with...

Wrap-up

TODAY'S RECAP

- ✓ Vocabulary: explain, understand, difficult, easy, repeat
- ✓ Language chunks: Can you help me with... / I don't understand... / Could you explain...
- ✓ Skill: Asking teachers or family members for help with schoolwork.

FINAL TASK

Tell me in one sentence: Which phrase from today's lesson would you use if your math homework is too difficult?

 Challenge: Try using these phrases the next time you need help with your schoolwork!