

Lesson 7: Dealing with Distractions

Students can describe their daily study routines, discuss learning tools, and share advice for building good study habits while balancing school and family life.

 Objective: Identify common study distractions and give advice on how to avoid them.

Warm-up

Let's talk about studying.

THINK AND SHARE

"How do you stay focused when your house is noisy or the TV is on?"

START WITH:

- When the TV is on, I usually...
- To stay focused in a noisy house, I...

Useful Language (Part 1)

turn off

DEF to stop a machine, light, or phone from working

EG I turn off my phone when I'm studying.

CHK When you go to sleep, do you turn off the lights or leave them on?

focus

DEF to give all your attention to one thing

EG It's hard to focus when the house is noisy.

CHK Is it easier to focus in a quiet room or a noisy room?

Useful Language (Part 2)

video game 🎮

DEF An electronic game played on a computer, phone, or TV.

EG I want to play a video game, but I have to finish my homework first.

CHK Which is a video game: Super Mario or playing football outside?

notification 🔔

DEF A message or alert on your phone that tells you something new.

EG I get a loud notification on my phone when my mom sends me a message.

CHK Do you get notifications from a paper book or a smartphone?

screen 📺

DEF The flat surface of a TV, phone, or computer that shows pictures and words.

EG Looking at a phone screen for too long can make your eyes tired.

CHK Which item has a screen: a laptop or a paper notebook?

Conversation Builder

Learn how to give advice about staying focused.

- You should... — To say what is good to do.
- You shouldn't... — To say what is bad to do.
- It's a good idea to... — To give a helpful suggestion.

MODEL DIALOG

A: I can't focus at all. Someone is playing a really loud video game.

B: Well, you shouldn't sit near the screen. It's a good idea to find a quiet room.

Let's practice

TEACHER

"Imagine I'm trying to study, but my family is watching TV really loudly. On top of that, my phone keeps getting a lot of notifications. What should I do? Give me some advice using the phrases below."

STUDENT GUIDE

- 💬 You should ____ so you can focus.
- 💬 You shouldn't ____.
- 💬 It's a good idea to ____.

Real-world scenario

 You: Helpful friend: You want to help your friend study.

 Tutor: Distracted student: You can't finish your homework because you keep playing a video game.

⚡ THE PROBLEM

Your friend (the tutor) can't finish their homework because they keep playing a video game.

YOUR MISSION

-  Listen to your friend's problem.
-  Tell them to turn off the screen.
-  Give advice on how to focus using 'You should' or 'It's a good idea to'.

▶ Tutor: Oh man, I have a lot of homework, but I just can't stop playing this video game! What should I do?

Wrap-up

TODAY'S RECAP

- ✓ Vocabulary: turn off, focus, video game, notification, screen
- ✓ Phrases: You should... / You shouldn't... / It's a good idea to...
- ✓ Skill: Identify things that interrupt studying and give advice on how to avoid them.

FINAL TASK

In one sentence, use one of today's phrases to give me advice on how to stay focused when the TV is on.

 Challenge: Next time you study, turn off the notifications on your screen and see if it helps you focus better.
