

Lesson 9: Setting Learning Goals

Students can describe their daily study routines, discuss learning tools, and share advice for building good study habits while balancing school and family life.

 Objective: Talk about what you want to achieve in your studies.

Warm-up

Let's talk about your goals.

THINK AND SHARE

"What is one subject or skill you want to practice to get better grades this year?"

START WITH:

- I want to practice...
- My goal is to get better grades in...

Useful language (Part 1)

improve

DEF To make something better.

EG I want to improve my English grades this year.

CHK If you improve your grades, do they go up or down?

learn

DEF To gain new knowledge or skills.

EG My goal is to learn how to use this new software.

CHK Where do you usually learn new study skills: in a classroom or at a restaurant?

Useful Language (Part 2)

goal

DEF Something you want to do or achieve in the future.

EG My goal is to speak English well this year.

CHK Which of these is a goal: eating lunch right now or finishing a big project next month?

DEF A number or letter that shows how well you did on a test or in a class.

EG I want to get a good grade on my math test.

CHK If you do very well on a test, will your grade be high or low?

skill

DEF The ability to do something well because you have practiced it.

EG Coding is a very useful skill for my job.

CHK Which of these is a skill: having brown eyes or playing the piano?

Conversation Builder

Talk about your learning goals.

- I want to... — To express a wish.
- I hope to... — To express a future wish.
- My goal is to... — To state a specific plan.

MODEL DIALOG

Tutor: So, what do you want to learn this year?

Student: Well, I want to learn a new computer skill.

Tutor: That's a great idea! How are you planning to do that?

Student: I hope to practice every day. My goal is to improve my grades.

Let's practice

TEACHER

"Imagine it's the start of the new school year, and I'm your mentor. Tell me about your goals for practicing and getting better grades in subjects like math, English, or science. Use the sentence frames below to share your ideas."

STUDENT GUIDE

- 💬 My goal is to improve my ____ grade.
- 💬 I want to practice ____ every week.
- 💬 I hope to learn a new skill, like ____.

Real-world scenario

 You: Student

 Tutor: Tutor (acting as a mentor)

⚡ THE PROBLEM

You want to improve your grades and learn new skills for the upcoming school year.

YOUR MISSION

- 💬 Share three learning goals with your tutor.
- 💬 Use phrases like: I want to, I hope to, or My goal is to.
- 💬 Explain how you plan to achieve these goals.

▶ Hi there! A new school year is starting soon. So, what are your three main learning goals?
